

3rd FORTHEM international conference: Democratic & Responsible Bio Innovation

Friday, 13 March 2026

Bioconvergence & Resilient Innovation Ecosystems (10:00 - 13:50)

time	[id] title	presenter
10:00	[52] Cases studies of engineering-driven research based on circular bioeconomy	Prof. BADIA VALIENTE, José David
10:30	[32] Data-Driven Conservation Modeling for Fish Species in Protected Areas	HUNYADI, Daniel
10:50	[10] Measuring export competitiveness of wood products: Latvia vs other European countries	Dr KRASNOPJOROV, Olegs
11:10	[8] Laboratory for Community Development: An Innovation for Resilient Innovation Systems in Central Romania	CROITORU, Alin CORMAN, Sorina
11:30	[14] Re-purposing invasive plants as bioeconomic solutions [Prof. Simona Oancea; Dr. Maria Denisa COCÎRLEA]	COCÎRLEA, Maria Denisa Prof. OANCEA, Simona
11:50	[6] "A tsunami of cancer" and mental health: the impact of negative emotions on illness acceptance in cancer patients	Prof. KROK, Dariusz
12:10	[11] PLANT BY-PRODUCTS AS POTENTIAL SOURCES OF VALUABLE BIOLOGICALLY ACTIVE COMPOUNDS	MAKHYNIA, Larysa
12:30	[13] Contribution to the development of a multifaceted diversity framework in the context of the Biology–Ecology–Environmental Sciences–Environmental Engineering–and–(Human) Society (BEES) System.	Mr SÎRBU, Ioan
12:40	[42] From emissions to feed: Quantifying the GHG emission avoidance potential of microbial protein production with hybrid living materials.	DANENBERGA, Ilva
12:50	[39] Bioactive Potential and Phytochemical Profile of Phoenix dactylifera L. Seeds Extracted Using Hydrophilic and Hydrophobic NADES	Ms FERRANDIS ROSELL, Anna
13:00	[17] UNRAVELING BEAUVERICIN TOXICITY: CELL DEATH AND OXIDATIVE STRESS IN SH-SY5Y CELLS	MOYANO-LÓPEZ, Claudia
13:10	[9] Examples of waste raw materials: representatives of the genus Rosa as sources of biologically active substances for the development and creation of medicines and dietary supplements	KARPIUK, Uliana
13:20	[23] The importance of sericulture in the development of the circular economy	Mr MATRAN, Cristian Mrs MATRAN, Irina M
13:30	[7] Understanding Burnout in the Primary Healthcare Workforce: Prevalence and Risk Factors	BABIKER, Marwan
